7 General Meetings

7.1 Annual General Meeting

AGMs of the Association are to be held:

- (a) in accordance with the Act; and
- (b) in accordance with the Manual.

7.2 Power to convene General Meeting

- (a) The National Board may convene a General Meeting when they think fit and must do so if required by the Act.
- (b) Voting Members may convene a General Meeting in accordance with the Act.

7.3 Notice of General Meeting

Notice of a General Meeting of Members must be given:

- (a) to all Members entitled to vote at the General Meeting, the National Board, and the auditor of the Association; and
- (b) in accordance with the Manual and the Act.

7.4 Right to appoint representative

In accordance with the Act, each Voting Member is entitled to appoint an individual as their representative to attend General Meetings.

7.5 Right to appoint proxy

- (a) A Voting Member entitled to vote at a General Meeting of the Association is entitled to appoint another person as their proxy to attend the meeting in their place in accordance with the Act.
- (b) A proxy has the same rights as the Voting Member at the meeting and may be appointed in respect of more than one meeting.

7.6 Form of proxy

The instrument appointing a proxy may be in a common or usual form, as determined by the National Board from time to time.

8 Proceedings at General Meeting

8.1 Number for a quorum

One half of the Voting Members must be present at a General Meeting to constitute a quorum.

8.2 Requirement for a quorum

An item of business may not be transacted at a General Meeting unless a quorum is present at the commencement of the meeting.

8.3 Quorum and time

If within 30 minutes after the time appointed for a General Meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting:

- (a) if convened by, or on requisition of, Voting Members is dissolved; and
- (b) in any other case stands adjourned to such other day, time and place as the Chair determines.

8.4 Chair to preside over General Meetings

- (a) The National President is entitled to preside as Chair at General Meetings.
- (b) If a General Meeting is convened and there is no Chair, or the Chair is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting or is unable or unwilling to act, the following may preside as Chair (in order of entitlement):
 - (i) a director (or other person) chosen by a majority of the National Board present;
 - (ii) the only director present; or
 - (iii) a Voting Member who is chosen by a majority of the Voting Members present.

8.5 Conduct of General Meetings

The Chair:

- (a) has charge of the general conduct of the meeting and of the procedures to be adopted;
- (b) may require the adoption of any procedure which in the Chair's opinion is necessary or desirable for proper and orderly debate or discussion or the proper and orderly casting or recording of votes; and
- (c) may, having regard where necessary to the Act, terminate discussion or debate on any matter whenever the Chair considers it necessary or desirable for the proper conduct of the meeting.

8.6 Adjournment of General Meeting

- (a) The Chair may with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present, and must if so directed by the meeting, adjourn the meeting or any business, motion, question, resolution, debate or discussion being considered or remaining to be considered by the meeting.
- (b) The adjournment may be either to a later time at the same meeting or to an adjourned meeting at any time and place agreed by vote of the members present.

- (c) Only unfinished business is to be transacted at a meeting resumed after an adjournment.

8.7 Notice of adjourned meeting

- (a) It is not necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at any adjourned meeting unless a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more.
- (b) In that case, at least the same period of notice as was originally required for the meeting must be given for the adjourned meeting.

8.8 Questions decided by majority

Subject to the requirements of the Act and except in the case of a special resolution, a resolution is carried if a simple majority of the votes cast on the resolution are in favour of it.

8.9 Equality of votes

Where an equal number of votes is cast in favour of and against the resolution, the resolution is not carried. For the avoidance of doubt the Chair does not have a casting vote where voting is equal.

8.10 Declaration of results

- (a) At any General Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is properly demanded and the demand is not withdrawn.
- (b) A declaration by the Chair that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meetings of the Association, is conclusive evidence of the fact.
- (c) Neither the Chair nor the minutes need state, and it is not necessary to prove, the number or proportion of the votes recorded for or against the resolution.

8.11 Poll

- (a) If a poll is properly demanded in accordance with the Act, it must be taken in the manner and at the date and time directed by the Chair, and the result of the poll is the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- (b) A poll demanded on the election of a Chair or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately.
- (c) A demand for a poll may be withdrawn.
- (d) A demand for a poll does not prevent the General Meeting continuing for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll was demanded.

8.12 Objection to voting qualification

- (a) An objection to the right of a person to attend or vote at a General Meeting (including an adjourned meeting):
 - (i) may not be raised except at that meeting; and
 - (ii) must be referred to the Chair, whose decision is final.
- (b) A vote not disallowed under the objection is valid for all purposes.

8.13 Chair to determine any poll dispute

If there is a dispute about the admission or rejection of a vote, the Chair must decide it and the Chair's decision made in good faith is final.

9 Votes of Members

9.1 Votes of Members

- (a) At a General Meeting, on a show of hands and on a poll or ballot, each of the Voting Members will have the votes set out in this clause 9.1.
- (b) Each Voting Member will receive and may exercise one vote from their club.
- (c) A Voting Member that has been appointed as a proxy for another club may exercise that vote in accordance with the instructions of the club.

9.2 Election of National Board

Elections for Elected Directors will be by exhaustive ballot at the relevant General Meeting on papers prepared by the National Board.

9.3 Resolutions not in General Meeting

- (a) If the required majority of Voting Members entitled to vote sign a document (that has been circulated to all Voting Members entitled to notice of a General Meeting) containing a statement that they are in favour of a resolution in terms set out in the document, a resolution in those terms is deemed to have been passed at a General Meeting of the Association held at the time on which the document was signed by the last Member to achieve the required majority.
- (b) For the purposes of this clause, 2 or more separate documents containing statements in identical terms each of which is signed by 1 or more Voting Members entitled to vote are deemed together to constitute one document containing a statement in those terms signed by those Voting Members on the day on which the last person to sign the document does so.
- (c) A facsimile transmission or other form of visible or other electronic communication purported to be signed by a Voting Member for the purpose of this clause is deemed to be a document in writing signed by that Voting Member.

10 NATIONAL CONVENTIONS

A National Convention:

- (a) will be held every two years;
 - (b) must be held in conjunction with the AGM;
 - (c) should be reverved by all Members of the Association; and
 - (d) will otherwise be organized and held in accordance with the requirements set out in the Manual.

12.1 Telecommunication Meeting

- (a) A General Meeting or a National Board Meeting may be held by means of a telecommunication meeting, provided that:
 - (i) the number of Voting Members or National Board (as applicable) participating is not less than a quorum required for a General Meeting or National Board Meeting (as applicable); and
 - (ii) the meeting is convened and held in accordance with the Act.
- (b) All provisions of this Constitution relating to meetings apply to a telecommunication meeting in so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this clause.

12.2 Conduct of telecommunication meeting

The following provisions apply to a telecommunication meeting:

- (a) all persons participating in the meeting must be linked by telephone, audio-visual or other instantaneous means for the purpose of the meeting;
- (b) each of the persons taking part in the meeting must be able to hear and be heard by each of the other persons taking part at the commencement of the meeting and each person so taking part is deemed for the purposes of this Constitution to be present at the meeting;

- (c) at the commencement of the meeting each person must announce his or her presence to all other persons taking part in the meeting;
- (d) a person may not leave a telecommunication meeting by disconnecting his or her telephone, audio-visual or other communication equipment unless that person has previously notified the Chair;
- (e) a person may conclusively be presumed to have been present and to have formed part of a quorum at all times during a telecommunication meeting unless that person has previously notified the Chair of leaving the meeting; and
- (f) a minute of proceedings of a telecommunication meeting is sufficient evidence of the proceedings and of the observance of all necessary formalities if the minute is certified to be a correct minute by the Chair.

13 INDEMNITY AND INSURANCE

13.1.1 Subject to Clause 13.1.2, every person who is or has been:

- (i) a director;
- (ii) a CEO;
- (iii) Association Consul;
- (iv) Association Staff; or
- (v) a Company Secretary, is entitled to be indemnified out of the property of the Association against:

- (a) every liability incurred by the person in that capacity (except a liability for legal costs); and
- (b) all legal costs incurred in defending or resisting (or otherwise in connection with) proceedings, whether civil or criminal or of an administrative or investigatory nature, in which the person becomes involved because of that capacity: unless
- (c) the Association is forbidden by statute to indemnify the person against the liability or legal costs; or
- (d) an indemnity by the Association of the person against the liability or legal costs would, if given, be made void by statute.

13.1.2 Clause 13.1.1 will not apply where:

- (a) the Association is forbidden by statute to indemnify the person against the liability or legal costs; or
- (b) an indemnity by the Association of the person against the liability or legal costs would, if given, be made void by statute.

13.2 Insurance

The Association may pay or agree to pay, whether directly or through an interposed entity, a premium for a contract insuring a person who is or has been a director, Association Secretary or CEO against liability incurred by the person in that capacity, including a liability for legal costs, unless:

- (a) the Association is forbidden by statute to pay or agree to pay the premium; or
 - (b) the contract would, if the Association paid the premium, be made void by statute.
